ALLEGED VIOLATIONS

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
--------------------------------	---------------------------------------

- | | |
|-----------|---|
| 1. | The defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime. On November 16, 2013, Mr. Sanders was driving his vehicle on Interstate 40 when he was pulled over by an officer with the Metro Nashville Police Department. According to the affidavit, which is attached for Your Honor's review, the officer detected a strong odor of cologne coming from the vehicle operated by Mr. Sanders. He noted Mr. Sanders had slurred speech, slow and lethargic movement, and poor use of small motor skills. Mr. Sanders was unable to complete the Horizontal Gaze Nystagmus portion of the Standardize Field Sobriety Test, and was subsequently charged with Driving Under the Influence and Implied Consent. |

Compliance with Supervision Conditions and Prior Interventions:

Jason Sanders lives with his parents and two children in Lebanon, Tennessee. He is currently employed by Unipress and works at the Nissan factory in Smyrna, Tennessee. Mr. Sanders began his term of supervised release on June 17, 2011, and he is due to terminate supervision on June 16, 2014.

While on supervision, Mr. Sanders has struggled to obtain full-time employment, but has otherwise been compliant with the terms of his supervised release. As a result of Mr. Sanders' arrest, the probation officer verbally reprimanded him and re-instructed him to obey all local, state, and federal laws. Mr. Sanders was also referred to Cumberland Mental Health, in Lebanon, Tennessee, for a substance abuse assessment and any necessary treatment.

U.S. Probation Officer Recommendation:

The probation officer is requesting that no additional action be taken by the Court at this time. It is recommended that Mr. Sanders remain on supervised release, participate in substance abuse treatment, and not incur any future violations. Assistant U.S. Attorney Lynne Ingram has been advised of the offender's noncompliance and is in agreement with this recommendation.
